Luca was at home because he didn't have any money to go out. He helped his dad tidy the garage for 7.50. They found lots of rubbish, but also things to recycle. Luca had a plan. He gave things to a charity shop, and got money for the CDs at a second-hand CD shop. Luca put the sofa and things back in the garage and made a den. When his friends arrived, they were surprised. They really like Luca's den and had a 90s party.
